Announcing the Open Program for Talents Tokyo 2018

Talents Tokyo 2018, the talent development and networking platform for the film makers will be held from Monday, November 19 to Saturday, November 24 at the Yurakucho Asahi Hall (Yurakucho Mullion, 2-5-1 Yurakucho, Chiyoda-ku, Tokyo). A number of items in the program are open to the media, as listed below. You are cordially invited to attend and cover these items.

Purpose:

Talents Tokyo 2018 is a talent development and networking platform providing opportunities for attendees (herein, "Talents") from around Asia seeking to become directors and producers in a film industry, so that they can gain the know-how to perform on a global level and have a chance to build international networks. Internationally active professionals in directing, producing and sales will serve as instructors, giving talks and presentations to talents to help them develop their skills. Through exchanges with their instructors and with each other, as well as in exchanges with directors gathered for the Tokyo Filmex film festival (being held at the same time), it is the project's goal to help talents build new global networks.

- (1) Thursday, November 22, 1:00 pm – 2:00 pm: Open lecture
- (2) Thursday, November 22, 2:30 pm – 5:30 pm: Presentations (with Japanese consecutive interpretation)
